Re: United States v. Hatem Naji Fariz
Case No.: 8:03-CR-77-T-30TBM

Dear Counsel:

Pursuant to Rules 16(b)(1)(A) and 16(b)(1)(C) of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure and the Court's Order and Notice of Hearing (Do. 960), enclosed are the names and curriculum vitaes of Hatem Naji Fariz' expert witnesses. Mssrs. Ilan Pappe and Raji Sourani will testify as true experts. Summaries of their testimony will be provided upon complete receipt and review of the United States' disclosure of experts and their summaries. However, the nature of Mr. Pappe's testimony is apparent from the books and articles he has authored concerning the Israeli-Palestinian conflict. Articles authored by Mr. Sourani can be located at the website for his organization, the Palestinian Centre for Human Rights, www.pchrgaza.org. Mssrs. Yunis and Diab are Arabic translators. The summary of their testimony can be gleaned from the counter-translations Mr. Fariz is in the process of submitting.

Counsel for Mr. Fariz is in possession of various books and related materials not seized by the government which are the subject of numerous conversations listed in the Superceding Indictment and which reflect the subject of those conversations. Specifically, these items include: audio cassettes of "Voice of Jerusalem," books sold and distributed by Hatem Fariz in conjunction with Chicago Islamic Center, photos of relevant places and people in Chicago and the Occupied Territories, brochures from Friends of the Blind Association, letters from Chicagoans and others, and newspaper articles. These items are available for review and/or copying at our mutual convenience.

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

April 1995 – Present
Director of the Palestinian Centre for Human Rights

Established by Raji Sourani and a group of human rights activists following the collapse of the Gaza Centre for Rights and Law. It is now the leading NGO in the Gaza Strip concerned with human rights and the development of democratic society. The Centre remains under constant threat of restriction and closure because of its human rights activities.

April 1991 – April 1995
Director of the Gaza Centre for Rights and Law

Human Rights agency in the Israeli-occupied Gaza Strip. Helped to develop the Gaza Centre from a small voluntary agency to a human rights organisation with an international reputation. Criticisms of the Palestinian State Security Courts led to his arrest by the Palestinian Authority and dismissal from the Gaza Centre for Rights and Law (see below).

1977 – Present
Lawyer and Head of Law Firm based in the Gaza Strip

Established his own firm in 1983, through which he represented clients in the Israeli Military Courts, providing pro bono legal advice, assistance and representation to individuals who were victims of human rights violations by the Israeli occupying forces. Cases represented included administrative detention, torture, deaths in custody, inquiries, compensation for use of force by Israeli soldiers leading to serious physical injury, and precedent-setting cases on special brigades conducting torture resulting in death. Arrested and detained for his activities as a lawyer (see below).

EDUCATION

BA (hons) Law, studied at Beirut and Alexandria Universities.
1991 and 1993 – Visiting scholar, Human Rights Centre, Columbia University.
