HATIM NAJI FARIZ

ORDER OF RELEASE

It is hereby ORDERED:

1. That the conditions of release are established as set forth below.
2. That upon the Defendant's agreement, in writing, to comply with the following conditions of release, the United States Marshal's Service is directed to release the above-named Defendant.

DONE AND ORDERED at Tampa, Florida, on April 22, 2003.

MARK A. PIZZO
UNITED STATES MAGISTRATE JUDGE

CONDITIONS OF RELEASE FOR DEFENDANT, HATIM NAJI FARIZ

1. You must appear before the Court in accordance with all notices.
2. You must not at any time, for any reason whatsoever, leave the Middle District of Florida without first obtaining written permission from the United States District Court for the Middle District of Florida or the district court where criminal charges are pending.
3. You must not change your present address without first advising the Clerk of the Court for the Middle District of Florida in writing.

4. You shall not commit a federal, state, or local crime during the period of your release. You are specifically advised that federal law prohibits conduct relating to intimidation of witnesses, jurors, and officers of the court (18 U.S.C. § 1503); conduct relating to obstruction of criminal investigations (18 U.S.C. § 1510); conduct involving tampering with witnesses, victims, or informants (18 U.S.C. § 1512); and conduct involving retaliation against a witness, victim, or informant (18 U.S.C. § 1513), as well as attempts to commit any of the foregoing crimes.

5. SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF YOUR RELEASE (Only those applicable to you are checked.)

- X_ Report on a regular basis to Pretrial Services as directed by that agency.
- X_ Surrender your passport or travel documents to Pretrial Services prior to release from custody.
- X_ You shall refrain from any fund-raising unless specifically authorized by Pretrial Services.
- X_ Maintain lawful and suitable employment (or if unemployed, actively seek employment).

6. A violation of any of the above conditions may result in the immediate issuance of a warrant for your arrest and may result in a forfeiture of the bond previously given. Further, upon re-arrest, you may be detained in jail without the setting of new conditions of release or, if new conditions of release are established, those conditions will, in all likelihood, be significantly greater than the conditions previously established. Moreover, if you violate your conditions of release you may be prosecuted for contempt of Court.

7. CONSEQUENCES OF FAILURE TO APPEAR AND/OR FAILURE TO SURRENDER FOR SERVICE OF SENTENCE: A defendant commits a separate offense against the laws of the United States if, after having been released under these conditions, he or she knowingly fails to appear before a Court as required by the conditions of release, or knowingly fails to surrender for service of a sentence pursuant to a court order. If a person fails to appear in connection with --

- (a) an offense punishable by death, life imprisonment or imprisonment for a term of 15 years or more, the penalties for failure to appear are a $250,000 fine, or imprisonment for not more than 10 years, or both;

- (b) an offense punishable by imprisonment for a term of five or more years, but less than 15 years, the penalties for failure to appear are a fine of not more than $250,000, or imprisonment for not more than five years, or both;
- (c) any other felony, the penalties for failure to appear are a $250,000 fine, or imprisonment for not more than two years, or both; or
- (d) a misdemeanor, the penalties for failure to appear are a $100,000 fine (if the offense occurred after November 1, 1987), or a $25,000 fine (if the offense occurred before November 1, 1987), or imprisonment for not more than one year, or both.

Because of the charge(s) lodged against you at the present time, the penalties that would apply to you for failure to appear are those found in subparagraph (a). Any term of imprisonment for failure to appear is required by law to be consecutive to the sentence of imprisonment for any other offense. Furthermore, federal law provides that if you commit an offense while you are released under these conditions of release, you would be sentenced, in addition to the sentence prescribed for the offense, to a term of imprisonment of not more than 10 years if the offense is a felony; or a term of not more than one year if the offense is a misdemeanor.

I further acknowledge that I have been given a copy of this instrument as well as a copy of the bail bond to which it is attached.
