Public Notice
Regarding Enforcement of Fla. Stat. § 77.28
Garnishment, attorney's fees, costs, expenses; deposit required

Notice is hereby given that due to the revision of Fla. Stat. § 77.28 (effective July 1, 2014), beginning on July 29, 2014, the United States District Court for the Middle District of Florida will discontinue its practice of requiring the party applying for a Writ of Garnishment to deposit $100 in the registry of the court. The statute is set forth below:

Title VI. Civil Practice and Procedure (Chapters 45-89)

Chapter 77. Garnishment

→→ 77.28. Garnishment; attorney fees, costs, expenses; deposit required

Upon issuance of any writ of garnishment, the party applying for it shall pay $100 to the garnishee on the garnishee's demand at any time after the service of the writ for the payment or part payment of his or her attorney fee which the garnishee expends or agrees to expend in obtaining representation in response to the writ. On rendering final judgment, the court shall determine the garnishee's costs and expenses, including a reasonable attorney fee, and in the event of a judgment in favor of the plaintiff, the amount is subject to offset by the garnishee against the defendant whose property or debt owing is being garnished. In addition, the court shall tax the garnishee's costs and expenses as costs. The plaintiff may recover in this manner the sum advanced by him or her, and, if the amount allowed by the court is greater than the amount paid together with any offset, judgment for the garnishee shall be entered against the party against whom the costs are taxed for the deficiency.
