

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE MIDDLE DISTRICT OF FLORIDA

COMPLAINT FOR PRISONERS FILING UNDER:

- 42 U.S.C. § 1983 for suits against state actors
- 28 U.S.C. § 1331 for suits against federal defendants pursuant to Bivens v. Six Unknown Federal Narcotics Agents, 403 U.S. 388 (1971)

EXPLANATION AND INSTRUCTIONS - READ CAREFULLY

1. Complaint and Affidavit of Indigency. This packet includes a complaint form which must be completed as instructed below. Actions filed by pro se prisoner litigants will not be considered by the Court unless this complaint form has been completed. Also included is an affidavit of indigency to apply to proceed in forma pauperis (IFP), which you must complete if you cannot pay the filing fee.

2. Format. Your complaint must be legibly handwritten, typewritten, or computer generated. You must answer all of the questions on the complaint form. You must provide your full and correct name as Plaintiff. When listing Defendants, you must provide the name and either job title or position; e.g., Officer J. Smith. You must furnish an address for each Defendant. If you need additional space to answer a question, you may use additional blank pages, but do not write on the reverse side of any page. You must sign the complaint on the last page of the complaint form. You should keep a copy of the complaint for your records, but the complaint that is sent to the Court for filing must contain your original signature. You must provide truthful statements: any false statement made in the complaint or affidavit of indigency may result in sanctions, including the dismissal of your case, and may also serve as the basis for a prosecution for perjury.

3. Claims. State the facts that support your claim or claims. The claims raised in this action must relate to the same basic incident or issue. Any other claims must be addressed in a separate civil rights complaint. When presenting the facts in the complaint, it is unnecessary to make legal arguments or provide case citation. Such argument is unnecessary at the initiation of a case. You may attach as exhibits to your complaint any documents related to the exhaustion of your administrative remedies. Otherwise, you will be advised when the submission of argument or evidence in support of your claim or claims is appropriate.

4. Filing fee. For the complaint to be filed, you must submit a filing fee. You must either:

a. Pay the required fee of $400. This fee must be paid at the same time you submit your complaint. If you can pay this fee, you are also responsible for the costs of service of the complaint upon Defendants, although you may seek assistance from the Court. See, e.g., Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 4(c)(3).

b. Petition the Court to proceed in forma pauperis. This option is available if you are unable to pay the filing fee and service costs for this action. You may petition the Court to proceed in forma pauperis using the affidavit of indigency form included in this packet. To begin the in forma pauperis process, you must first execute the attached affidavit of indigency, setting forth the information that establishes your financial status. You must answer every question on the affidavit, have it properly notarized, and ensure that an authorized official at the institution completes the affidavit certificate. You must also provide the Court with a certified copy of your prison account statement containing all transactions in your prisoner account for the six (6) months preceding the filing of the complaint. If the complaint is being filed by more than one Plaintiff, each Plaintiff must petition the Court to proceed in forma pauperis.

Please note that even if you proceed in forma pauperis, you will be required to pay a filing fee of $350. In the event you are unable to pay the filing fee at the time the action is filed, the Court will assess an initial partial filing fee. After the initial partial filing fee is paid, the prison at which you are incarcerated will be required to forward to the Clerk's Office monthly payments of 20% of the preceding month's income credited to your inmate account until the $350 filing fee is paid. Notwithstanding the above, the party or parties seeking leave to proceed in forma pauperis may be required to pay, as a condition to allowing the case to proceed in forma pauperis, a stated portion of the Clerk's and/or Marshals' fees. Additionally, in forma pauperis status does not entitle you to free copies of pleadings, motions, orders, or docket reports (the cost is $.50 per page).

5. Service. In a civil case (for example, a civil rights action or negligence action), if IFP is granted, the Court may direct that your complaint be served by the U.S. Marshals on the opposing party or parties.

If you have paid the filing fee, then unless the Court expressly says otherwise (see, for example, Fed. R. Civ. P. 4(c)(3)), you are responsible for complying with service of process. The service of process rules, which are simply the rules that ensure that a defendant has timely received a copy of the summons and complaint (and thus provide the defendant with direct notice of your lawsuit) are found in Fed. R. Civ. P. 4 and Local Rule 1.07. You must serve each defendant in the manner specifically set forth in the Rules with a copy of the summons and complaint within 90 days after you have filed the complaint. It is your responsibility to timely comply with the Rules, and if you do not, your case may be dismissed.

6. Your records. After receiving notice from the Clerk of your case number, you must include the case number on all documents you file with the Court. You should keep a copy of every document you send to the Court (including a copy of this complaint), as you are not entitled to free copies from the Clerk even if you are proceeding in forma pauperis.

7. Change of address. Throughout this case, you are required to advise the Court in writing of any change in your mailing address by filing a Notice of Change of Address. As with every document you file with the Court, you must send a copy of your Notice of Change of Address to each defendant or Respondent and include a certificate of service. You will be notified as soon as any action is taken in your case. The Court will mail to you a copy of every order entered by the Court to the last address it has on file. Your failure to keep the Court advised of your current address may result in the dismissal of your case.

8. Directly Corresponding With the Court Prohibited

You may not directly correspond with the Court (or any individual judge) in the form of letters or similar documents. Instead, everything that you submit for the Court's consideration must be filed through the clerk's office. The Court will not respond to anything that is not filed through the clerk's office, will strike it from the case file, and will return it to you.
